

Canterbury School of Florida educates and nurtures the whole child in mind, body, and spirit in preparation for college and an honorable life as a responsible steward of our world.

Canterbury School of Florida in St. Petersburg, FL is seeking a Librarian & Tech Integrationist beginning January 2023. This is a long-term substitute position with the potential of becoming a permanent, full-time role. In addition to serving grades 5-12 students in the Knowlton Campus library, the Librarian & Tech Integrationist is also a member of the Technology Department. Ideal candidates will have a commitment to the School's mission, participate in school-wide activities, and contribute to a positive culture by building collaborative relationships with faculty and students.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Serve as Knowlton Campus Librarian (Grades 5-12)
 - Create an environment which fosters a love of reading
 - Support Knowlton Literacy Program
 - Manage textbook and curricular resources
 - Collaborate with students and teachers on research projects
 - Train teachers on research databases and resources

- Manage the Makerspace Library Program
 - Maintain the Makerspace Library
 - Implement curricular opportunities for teachers to use available resources in the Makerspace Library
 - Track, inventory, and organize supplies and resources
 - Facilitate and promote the scheduling of classes in Makerspace Library

- Technology Integration and Support
 - Conduct workshops for faculty and students on academic resources
 - Manage an Upper School teaching assistant, who helps to provide library and technical support
 - Support academic technology of students and faculty, along with helping to provide classroom technology assistance

Educational and Other Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree required, a Master's degree in library/Information Science (or the equivalent) is preferred, along with an advanced understanding of technology and digital literacy programming.
- Successful completion of pre-employment background screening

Interested applicants should send a letter of interest and resume to: employment@canterburyflorida.org